

Drinking Fountain
Birds And Squirrels To Succeed Horses

BY W. A. A. SARRACIN

The handsome brick drinking fountain which stands at the intersection of East Broadway street and South Boulevard is expected to be replaced as a mark of beauty.

It is a mark of beauty which has been the subject of much discussion in the city. The fountain is a handsome piece of architecture, but it is a mark of beauty which has been the subject of much discussion in the city.
