

HANDSOME FOUNTAIN IS COMPLETED

Hundreds of dumb animals refresh themselves daily from the beautiful $1000 fountain that has just been completed at Howard and Baronne street.

The fountain was a gift to the city from the fortune of Herman Lee Ensign, of New York, who left practically his entire fortune to be devoted to the attention of animals. The gift was made to New Orleans through the National Humane Alliance.

The fountain is of marble and is sectioned off. There are places at the bottom for dogs.
